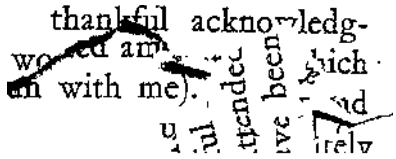
being the anniversary of my landing on the island, having now been there for two years, . and no more prospect of being delivered than the first day I came there. I spent the whole.

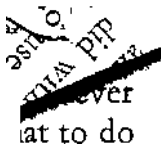


day in humble and ments of the many my solitary conditi without which i/'

there arose

more miserable.

d not seen at



at to do

§

ty thanks that God L ,ccn pleased^ ' to me that it was "possible happy in this solitary condition | have been in a ^erty of society, the pleasures of the world : that make up fully to me the deficicnci

not tr

solitary state, and the want of huma \ S^J> by His presence, and the comnn—

at^011 °^

His grace to my soul ; support comfort- ing, and encouraging me to dr

end

UPOB His

providence here, and hope

or His etemal

presence hereafter.

XIIL *My Crop>*n

In the months of Nov[11^1] and December,
I was expecting my crP of barle7 and rice'
The ground I had du UP for thcm was ttDt great, for my seed o^b was GOt above lmlf